

A-Level Law

Awarding body:	AQA
Qualification:	A Level
Method of assessment:	Examination
Course entry requirement:	Grade 5 or above in English is required for Law due to the extended answers you will write.

Course description and what it will be like:

We offer an exciting and varied approach to studying Law.

Law is rarely out of the news and is often the focus for many bestselling and award-winning books, tv dramas and films. It touches our lives on a daily basis, governs what we can and cannot do, it is used to settle disputes, to punish and to govern. Acceptable or controversial - laws play a central role in all of our social, political and economic life!

You will have to opportunity to learn all about the English Legal System and how it works!

In Year 1 - you will also study Criminal Law followed by studying Tort Law in Year 2. We will then look at Human Rights as the option unit.

The course is designed to encourage interest and enthusiasm for the study of Law and will allow students to develop an understanding of the Legal System in England and how it impacts daily life.

Specification and Units of Study:

Paper 1:	The nature of law and the English legal system. Criminal law.
Paper 2:	The nature of law and the English legal system. Tort law.
Paper 3:	The nature of law and the English legal system. Human Rights law.

Progress:

Law is a firmly established and respected academic subject. It is accepted by all Higher Education establishments as a suitable qualification for a wide variety of degree courses. It is also useful for those considering a range of professional careers not only Law but also roles in universities, national and local government, management, HR departments, the police, research, journalism, teaching etc.

Some subjects that would go well with Law may include: Government and Politics, History, Sociology, Criminology, English and Psychology.